Steven Noll releases Wally Never Give Up through Crave Press

Leesport, Pa. – Author Steven Noll's debut inspirational tween and children's book Wally Never Give Up: Wally's Adventure with Asthma was released September 1; it is currently available on Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and IndieBound as well as available through Crave Press.

Growing up with asthma was a struggle for Wally; he had hopes and dreams like all youngsters do, but he never thought they would come true because of his health condition. But Wally overcame his struggles with asthma and other obstacles in life, and you can, too. In Wally Never Give Up, Wally's story shows all children they should never give up on their dreams.

Steven Noll of Laureldale is a career firefighter, a fire service instructor, and a volunteer in his community. Steven has travelled across the country to receive firefighter training including national certifications. In 2019, he graduated from Bucks County Community College with an Associates Degree in Fire Science, and an Academic Certificate in Fire Prevention and Investigation. He will be graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Leadership from Penn State University in the spring of 2021. When not at the firehouse, Steven can be found at a softball field with his daughter. Steven has personally fought to overcome the obstacles created by asthma. With this book he hopes to inspire other asthma sufferers to win the battle. He would like to share a personal message to all the readers of this book that with each sunset, there is an amazing sunrise on the other side; don't give up.
